

BOILING POINT

Curated by Regine Basha, featuring work by selected second-year MFA Fine Arts candidates.

05.05.18–05.18.18

Opening Reception
Saturday, May 5, 7–9 PM

Gallery Hours
Thursday–Saturday, 12–6 PM

The Boiler
191 N 14th Street
Brooklyn, NY 11249

Cougar Vigil
Luisa Valderrama
Yen Yen Chou
Dévi Loftus
Jill Brandwein
Marco Lorenzetti
Abby Cheney
Rachel Gisela Cohen
Sora Woo
Sheila Lam
Cary Wander
Naomi Frank

Boiling Point is the fifth installment of Pratt Institute's Fine Arts Department's curated, off-campus graduate exhibition. The students' work represents a range of media, from painting, installation, sound performance, and sculpture. This show considers the metaphor of turning liquid into vapor, in the case of artists leaving a graduate program, excitedly anticipating the release of their work into the ether of related discussions and concerns, circling a more expansive contemporary art world now within their reach.
—Regine Basha

Organized by the Pratt Artists
League and the Fine Arts Department, with support from the School of Art and the Graduate Student Engagement Fund

For more information, please visit www.pratt.edu/pal.